

A series of horizontal lines for writing, consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated down the page.

A grid for a calendar, with a dotted line header area at the top. The grid consists of 7 columns representing the days of the week and 7 rows representing the days of the month. The days of the week are labeled at the top: Lundi, Mardi, Mercredi, Jeudi, Vendredi, Samedi, and Dimanche. The days of the month are numbered from 1 to 31, with the last row containing empty cells for the 29th, 30th, and 31st.
